Do that by making a sales web page for the new e-book, but do not include a worth on that page. As an alternative, add quite a few links to survey questions that ask pointed questions to help you in assigning a price to your ebook.

Another technique is to test out costs by making a number of duplicate sales pages with completely different costs on each page. Be certain that your sales copy is exactly the similar on every web page, and consists of your selling-handle sentence. Then work out for every web page the conversion ratio between visitors to your web site and gross sales of your book. This may inform you what your optimum value is.

Finally, if you happen to've written a e book that solves a drawback or presents a new technique, your book will bring in each site visitors and profits.
